

Wikispaces Classroom

Back to School Guide for Students

Log in to your Class

What is Wikispaces Classroom?

Your teacher's Wikispaces Classroom is an online site where you and your fellow students can work together on your learning.

Teachers, you can fill your students usernames in here so they don't forget. Students, never give anyone your password!

Sign In

Username or Email Address

Password

Sign In

Keep me signed in

Forgot your password?

Add your avatar

Picture

Change picture

Click on your profile picture and click "Change picture."

Profile

You have not yet created a profile page. Create a profile page now to tell other members about yourself when they click on your username. View your default profile page.

Join the Newsfeed

Click "post" to add a comment and "reply" to respond to someone else.

Add Discussions

On the home page of your Classroom, there is a Newsfeed. This is where you, your fellow students, and your teacher can post questions, ideas, and respond to each other. Be sure to be a good Digital Citizen and only post appropriately!

Gold Rush Poster Project - Sep 16 2013
suppor Jul 15, 2013
-At least 5 sentence, two pictures

Add a comment

Post

Does anyone like running?
Dom Jul 15, 2013
I want to do a 5k!!!

Add a comment

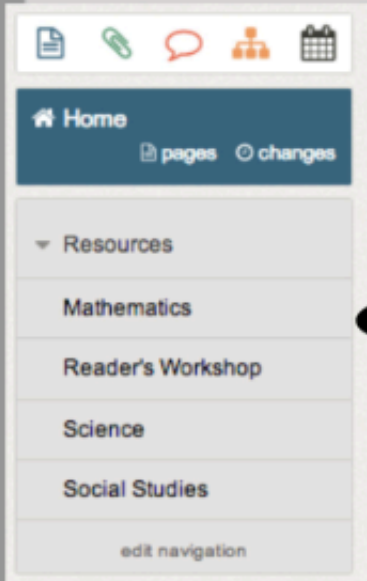

What book should we read aloud? Any suggestions?
suppor Jul 15, 2013
I was thinking about "Phantom Tollbooth." What do you think?

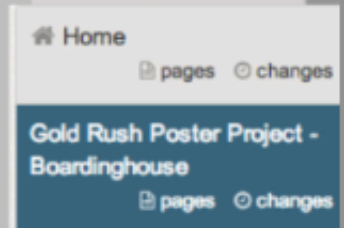

Dom Jul 15, 2013
I read "Diary of a Wimpy Kid" this summer. I think everyone would love it!

Check out your teacher's Pages

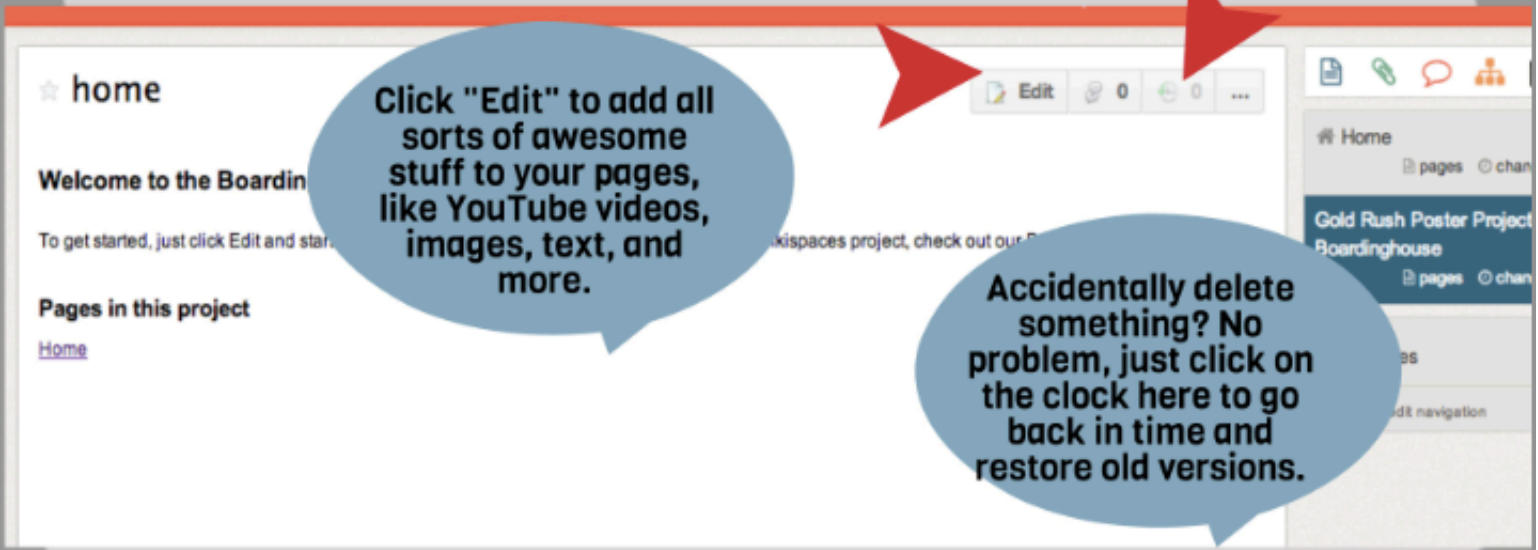

On the righthand side are all of the pages your teacher has made for you, full of resources and information about your class.

Your teacher might assign you your own special Project page to work on individually or in teams. They look like this on your right-hand side:

Edit Your Projects

Click "Edit" to add all sorts of awesome stuff to your pages, like YouTube videos, images, text, and more.

Accidentally delete something? No problem, just click on the clock here to go back in time and restore old versions.